

NECTAR Early Career Academic Retreat 2017

Register now, limited places, don't miss out!

20 -21 June 2017 at the National Museum of Australia

- > Be heard,
- > Take charge of your own network, and
- > Lead the future strategy of ANU!

Early bird registrations (by 12 June) are FREE and go in the running for a free massage.

Program highlights

\(Full program available on our website\)

- > Roundtable discussion with Professor Brian Schmidt, ANU Vice-Chancellor
- > Direct collegial discussion with both ANU's Deputy Vice-Chancellors!
- > Strategic directions: What does it take to see your vision realised?

With Professor Graham Durant, Director of Questacon; Professor Joanne Tompkins, Executive Director (Humanities and Creative Arts), ARC, and Dr Tony Willis, Executive Director, NHMRC.

- > Workshop on innovation in teaching with Glen O'Grady, Director CHELT
- > Engaging with industry to advance your vision through strategic partnerships

With Professor Michael Breadmore (1 of only 3 Australians in Analytical Sciences top 40 under 40) and world leading anthropologist Professor Genevieve Bell

- > Engaging with the public as an expert, Dr Rod Lamberts, Deputy Director CPAS
- > How to improve supervision at ANU and develop a culture of mentoring, with ANU's new Dean of Higher Degree Research, Professor Imelda Whelehan

Register for the NECTAR Retreat, by 16 June! (To register scan this QR code)

Twitter: @NECTARatANU Email: nectar@anu.edu.au Web: <http://nectar.anu.edu.au>

