This interactive workshop will give ANU Early Career Academics and HDR students insights into how their existing skills can be valuable to innovation, commercialisation and entrepreneurial initiatives.

It will also offer an opportunity to meet representatives from local organisations to provide ways to further develop your commercialisation skills and research projects.

For more information, contact: Dr. Julie Preston, NECTAR Coordinator - julie.preston@anu.edu.au | 6125 7165